THE DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

9 December 1965

The Honorable U. Alexis Johnson
Deputy Under Secretary for Political Affairs
Department of State

Dear Alex:

25X1A

25X1A

In reply to your question as to the advisability of using the [REDACTED] capability in [REDACTED] at the present time, I appreciate that we would be risking an important asset. I question, however, our ability to judge when it might be employed more profitably, since the international situation a month from now is not likely to be any more favorable.

25X1A

Since weeks or months of analysis of the results of the [REDACTED] mission are required before satisfactory meaning can be derived from the take, I believe it would be wise to establish a baseline of information on [REDACTED] [REDACTED] air defense responses and capabilities during the latter part of this month.

25X1C

25X1C

Sincerely,

25X1A

W. F. Raborn
